An individual who seeks access, or who seeks to correct, amend, or delete inaccurate personal information should direct his or her query to Moxie's customer. If the customer then requests Moxie to correct, amend, or delete the data in Moxie's possession or control, we will respond to their request promptly.

COOKIES AND OTHER TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES

As noted above, we may use cookies on the Websites. A "cookie" is a piece of data stored on the device from which a user accesses the Websites and which contains information about the user. Cookies enable Moxie to recognize you when you revisit the Websites and can provide you the benefit of not having to reenter certain information because the information is stored in the cookie. Moxie may also use cookies to better operate the Websites and help improve Website usage.

Moxie's Websites use two types of cookies: session cookies, which are temporary cookies that are erased from your computer's memory when you close your Internet browser or turn your computer off; and persistent cookies, which exist on your computer's hard drive until they expire, unless you delete them at an earlier time. Your browser may include a feature which can be set to alert you of cookies. You do not have to accept all cookies sent to you by the Websites. However, you may not be able to use some of the features of the Websites if you elect to reject certain cookies.

The Websites also utilize third-party cookies. Third-party service providers may use these cookies to provide tailored information to you and certain reports and information to Moxie. We do not have access or control over these third-party cookies and the use of third-party cookies is not covered by this Privacy Policy.

As is true of most websites, Moxie and our third-party tracking-utility partners use cookies and other tools on our Websites to gather certain information automatically and store it in log files. This information may include, but is not be limited to, domain, internet protocol (IP) addresses, browser type, internet service provider (ISP), referring/exit pages, operating system, date/time stamp, clickstream data and other information about your device. We use this information, which does not identify individual users, to analyze trends, to administer the Websites, to track users' movements around the Websites, and to gather demographic information about our user base as a whole.

Web beacons, also known as "web bugs," are small, graphic images on web pages or web-based documents or in email messages that allow Moxie, or third parties, to monitor who is visiting the Websites. We may tie the information gathered by clear gifs to our customers' personally identifiable information. Web beacons collect the IP address of the computer that the web beacon is sent to, the URL of the page the web beacon comes from, and the time it was viewed. We may use this information to provide targeted advertisements to you while you are on third-party websites with whom we have purchased advertising services.

- For example, we may post customer testimonials on the Websites which contain personally identifiable information, though we will obtain a customer's consent to post the customer's name and their testimonial prior to posting the testimonial to the Websites. If you would like your testimonial removed please contact us at privacy@gomoxie.com.

- Your personal information may be transferred to a third party if we undergo a merger, acquisition, bankruptcy or other transaction in which that third party assumes control of our business (in whole or in part).

RETENTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will retain your personal information for as long as needed to fulfill the purpose for which it was collected. We will retain and use your information as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements.

C. GENERAL

The following provisions will apply to all of Moxie's collection and use of personal information governed by this Privacy Policy, whether for Moxie's own benefit via its Websites and sales, marketing, and customer support activities or for the benefit of Moxie's customers as part of providing the Services:

SECURITY

Moxie employs robust security measures to prevent unauthorized access to personal information. We utilize reasonable and appropriate physical, technical, and administrative safeguards to protect the personal information submitted to us, both during transmission and once it is received. No security measure, however, is perfect. With respect to personal information collected by Moxie in the course of providing Services on behalf of a customer of ours you should also check the privacy practices of that customer to understand what security measures they use. If you have any questions about the security of your personal information, you can contact us at privacy@gomoxie.com.

CALIFORNIA RIGHTS

The California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 ("CCPA") provides California residents with specific rights regarding their personal information. This section describes your CCPA rights and explains how to exercise those rights. If you have any questions about this section or whether any of the following applies to you, please contact us at privacy@gomoxie.com and indicate "California Rights" in the subject line of your communication.

Access

You have the right to request certain information about our collection and use of your personal information over the past twelve (12) months. We will provide you with the following information:

- The categories of personal information that we have collected about you.
- The categories of sources from which that personal information was collected.
- The business or commercial purpose for collecting or selling your personal information.
- The categories of third parties with whom we have shared your personal information.
- The specific pieces of personal information that we have collected about you.

If we have disclosed your personal information for a business purpose over the past twelve (12) months, we will identify the categories of personal information shared with each category of third party recipient.

If we have sold your personal information over the past twelve (12) months, we will identify the categories of personal information purchased by each category of third party recipient.

Deletion

You have the right to request that we delete the personal information that we have collected from you. Under the CCPA, this right is subject to certain exceptions: for example, we may need to retain your personal information to provide you with the services for which you provided the information or complete a transaction or other action you have requested. If your deletion request is subject to one of these exceptions, we may deny your deletion request.

Exercising Your Rights

To exercise the rights described above, you must send us a request that (i) provides sufficient information to allow us to verify that you are the person about whom we have collected personal information, and (ii) describes your request in sufficient detail to allow us to understand, evaluate, and respond to it. Each request that meets both of these criteria will be considered a "Valid Request." We may not respond to requests that do not meet these criteria. We will only use personal information provided in a Valid Request to verify you and complete your request. You do not need an account to submit a Valid Request.

We will work to respond to your Valid Request within 45 days of receipt. We will not charge you a fee for making a Valid Request unless your Valid Request(s) is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded. If we determine that your Valid Request warrants a fee, we will notify you of the fee and explain that decision before completing your request.

You may submit a Valid Request using the following methods:

- Emailing us at: privacy@gomoxie.com
- Calling us at: 1 (800) 474-1149

We Will Not Discriminate Against You for Exercising Your Rights Under the CCPA

We will not discriminate against you for exercising your rights under the CCPA. We will not deny you our goods or services, charge you different prices or rates, or provide you a lower quality of goods and services if you exercise your rights under the CCPA. However, we may offer different tiers of access to our Websites and use of the Services as allowed by applicable data privacy laws (including the CCPA) with varying prices, rates, or levels of quality of the goods or services you receive related to the value of Personal Data that we receive from you.

Other California Resident Rights

Under California Civil Code Sections 1798.83-1798.84, California residents are entitled to contact us to prevent disclosure of Personal Data to third parties for such third parties' direct marketing purposes; in order to submit such a request, please contact us at privacy@gomoxie.com.

Your browser may offer you a "Do Not Track" option, which allows you to signal to operators of websites and web applications and services that you do not wish such operators to track certain of your online activities over time and across different websites. Not all browsers offer a Do Not Track option and there is currently no industry consensus as to what constitutes a Do Not Track signal. For these reasons, our Websites, like many website operators, do not support Do Not Track requests at this time. To find out more about "Do Not Track," you can visit www.allaboutdnt.com.

SALES OF PERSONAL DATA

We will not "sell" your Personal Data, as that term is defined in the CCPA, and have not done so over the last twelve (12) months.

INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFERS

Moxie is a global corporation with international operations and customers. We have developed global data security practices designed to ensure that personal information is appropriately protected. When you submit personal information to Moxie you are consenting to the transfer of the personal information to the United States or other jurisdictions which may be outside of the jurisdiction in which you reside and which may not provide the same protections and use restrictions on personal information as your jurisdiction of residence.

Moxie Software, Inc. and its subsidiary Moxie Software CIM Corp. are committed to subjecting all personal information they receive from the European Union (EU) to the principles of the EU-US Privacy Shield Framework, details of which can be found here: <https://www.privacyshield.gov/> (the "Privacy Shield Principles"). Moxie and Moxie Software CIM Corp. also comply with the Swiss-US Privacy Shield Framework. We have certified to the Department of Commerce that we adhere to the Privacy Shield Principles of (i) notice, (ii) consent, (iii) accountability for onward transfer, (iv) security, (v) data integrity and purpose limitation, (vi) access and (vii) recourse, enforcement and liability with respect to all Personal Data received from within the EU in reliance on the Privacy Shield. The Privacy Shield Principles require that we remain potentially liable if any third-party processing Personal Data on our behalf fails to comply with these Privacy Shield Principles (except to the extent we are not responsible for the event giving rise to any alleged damage). Moxie's compliance with the Privacy Shield is subject to the investigatory and enforcement powers of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission. If there is any conflict between the terms in this Privacy Policy and the Privacy Shield Principles, the Privacy Shield Principles shall govern.

In compliance with the Privacy Shield Principles, Moxie provides recourse to you if you believe that Moxie has failed to follow the Privacy Shield Principles with respect to your personal information. You can contact us with details of your complaint at privacy@gomoxie.com. If you feel that our response to your complaint is unsatisfactory you may contact, free of charge, our dispute resolution provider, JAMS, at www.jamsadr.com/eu-us-privacy-shield. More information can be found here: <https://www.privacyshield.gov/article?id=ANNEX-I-introduction>.

EU AND CERTAIN OTHER EUROPEAN RESIDENTS (GDPR)

If you are a resident of the European Union ("EU"), United Kingdom, Lichtenstein, Norway, or Iceland, you may have additional rights under the EU General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR") with respect to your Personal Data, as outlined below.

For this section, we use the terms "Personal Data" and "processing" as they are defined in the GDPR, but "Personal Data" generally means information that can be used to individually identify a person, and "processing" generally covers actions that can be performed in connection with data such as collection, use, storage, and disclosure. The business with you engage using our Services (e.g. Moxie's business customer) will be the controller of your Personal Data processed in connection with the Services.

If there are any conflicts between this section and any other provision of this Privacy Policy, the policy or portion that is more protective of Personal Data shall control to the extent of such conflict. If you have any questions about this section or whether any of the following applies to you, please contact us at privacy@gomoxie.com.

WHAT RIGHTS DO YOU HAVE REGARDING YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

You have certain rights with respect to your Personal Data, including those set forth below. For more information about these rights, or to submit a request, please email privacy@gomoxie.com. Please note that in some circumstances, we may not be able to fully comply with your request, such as if it is frivolous or extremely impractical, if it jeopardizes the rights of others, or if it is not required by law, but in those circumstances, we will still respond to notify you of such a decision. In some cases, we may also need to you to provide us with additional information, which may include Personal Data, if necessary to verify your identity and the nature of your request.

Special Note Regarding Personal Data Processed by Moxie through the Services: If Moxie has collected or is otherwise processing your Personal Data through your use of one of the Services we provide our customers, you should contact that customer (e.g. the business with whom you chatted, emailed or otherwise engaged online using one of our Services) in the first instance to address your rights with respect to the Personal Data.

Withdrawal of Consent: If we are processing your Personal Data based on your consent (as indicated at the time of collection of such data), you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. Please note, however, that if you exercise this right, you may have to then provide express consent on a case-by-case basis for the use or disclosure of certain of your Personal Data, if such use or disclosure is necessary to enable you to utilize some or all of our Services.

Portability: You can ask for a copy of your Personal Data in a machine-readable format. You can also request that we transmit the data to another controller where technically feasible.

Objection: You can contact us to let us know that you object to the further use or disclosure of your Personal Data for certain purposes.

Right to File a Complaint: You have the right to lodge a complaint about Moxie's practices with respect to your Personal Data with the supervisory authority of your country or EU Member.

If you do not wish to be contacted by Moxie, please notify us at privacy@gomoxie.com or by following any unsubscribe instructions contained in correspondence you receive from Moxie.

Additionally, you may choose not to provide personal information to Moxie via our Websites by electing not to enter any personal information into a form or data field on the Websites.
